

Rules & Notes for the

SRAM 24hr Roundtu-it Enduro

- All non MTBA members must sign a day license & liability release.
- Normal race rules apply in Addition:
- All riders are required to have front & rear lights fitted.
- All riders must attend riders meeting to be advised.
- Last entries must reach Roundtu-it before or on the 20th January 2012
- Mail entries to Roundtu-it P.O.Box 159 Northcliffe 6262
- Email enquiries to roundtu-it@westnet.com.au
- Phone enquiries to 0897767276
- You must have MTBA racing membership or MTBA day license for $15.
- Your bike must be in good working order with functional brakes.
- An Australian standards approved cycle helmet must be worn.
- Enclosed shoes must be worn.
- Riders must obey race official's instructions at all times.
- Cycling gloves are recommended.
- A race official's judgment is final they have the authority to disqualify riders.
- It is recommended that you carry a spare front light or torch.
- If you encounter a rider who has stopped or in trouble you must stop offer assistance.
- Common sense should prevail.
- Carry any spares you normally would carry such as spare tube & pump.
- Feel free to bring along safety equipment.
- Ensure you carry enough water & food for one lap or more.
- These rules are for the benefit of all riders. They allow everyone, regardless of ability, to have a good time in a safe environment.
- And believe me, you will have fun!!!

MALAGA CYCLES

